JUDICIAL COMMISSIONER'S COURT

NOTIFICATION

Simla-1, the 28th September, 1955

No. J. C-16(98)54.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 45-U of the Banking Companies Act, 1949 (Act 10 of 1949) as amended by Act LII of 1953 the Judicial Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh, is pleased to make the following rules:

The Banking Companies Himachal Pradesh Rules, 1955

1. Short title, commencement and application.—These rules may be called "The Banking Companies Himachal Pradesh Rules, 1955" and shall come into force at once and shall apply to all proceedings under the Banking Companies Act.

2. Definitions.—In these rules unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires,—

(a) 'Act' means the Banking Companies Act, 1949 (X of 1949) as amended by Act, XX of 1950, and Act LII of 1953 or as may be amended from time to time.

(b) 'Company' means a company to which the provisions of the Act apply.

3. General Heading.—Applications under part III or part III-A of the Banking Companies

Act, 1949, shall be instituted as under:

In the matter of the Banking Companies Act, X of 1949, and of the ----- Limited -----

petition under Section(s) -----

-----, ----- Petitioners

Versus

----- Respondents.

4. Presentation and hearing of petitions under part III or III-A of the Act.—Application for claims made by or against any banking company (including claims by or against any of its branches in India) and all applications involving questions of priorities and all other questions whatsoever, whether of law or fact, which may relate to or arise in the course of the winding up of the banking company as are mentioned in subsection (1) of section 45-B of the Act and any application under any of the sections of part III or part III-A of the Act shall be made by the petition.

5. Drafting of petition.—The petition shall contain a statement of facts relied on and the nature of the relief asked for, and shall be signed and verified in the same manner as a plaint under the Code of Civil Procedure and shall be supported by an affidavit.

6. Presentation of petition.—The petition shall be presented to the Judicial Commissioner or such other Officer of the Court as the Judicial Commissioner may direct.

7. Interim orders.—The Judicial Commissioner on hearing the application may pass such interim orders as he deems proper.

8. Notice of petitions.—Ordinarily notice of the petition shall be directed to be given by the Judicial Commissioner to the respondent or such person or persons as may seem likely to be affected by the proceedings.

9. Service and hearing of petitions.—Such notice shall be served together with a copy of the petition and the petition shall not be heard until fourteen days after service of the notice, unless the Judicial Commissioner otherwise directs.

10. Reply to the petition.—An answer to the petition shall be made by filing an affidavit and a copy thereof shall be furnished to the petitioner or his counsel at least two clear days before the date fixed for the hearing of such petition.

11. Direction for hearing of the petition.—On the date fixed for the hearing of the petition, the Court may proceed to hear the petition or give such directions as it may think proper as to discovery and inspection, examination of witnesses in Court or taking of evidence by affidavit or otherwise, and generally for the speedy determination of the petition.

12. Typed paper book.—In every appeal by or against a company, a typed paper book shall be prepared. The cost of preparation of such paper book shall be paid by the appellant and the procedure prescribed for the typing of the paper books shall in so far as may be and with necessary modifications and adaptations, apply.

13. Civil Procedure Code to apply.—The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) unless inconsistent with these rules shall apply to all proceedings under the Act.

14. Pleading of set off or counterclaim.—In all claims for money by a banking company, the debtor shall be entitled to plead by way of set off or counter-claim any amount which he may claim against the company.

15. Execution of orders.—(a) Every order in favour of a company for enforcement of a mortgage, pledge, hypothecation or any other security, shall be executed by the order of the Judicial Commissioner and the Judicial Commissioner may direct the security to be sold by a Commissioner without the settlement of a sale proclamation, but after such advertisement as he may direct.

(b) Every other order passed in favour of a company for money may be executed by the order of the Judicial Commissioner or transmitted for execution to any other Court subordinate to the Judicial Commissioner's Court as the Judicial Commissioner may deem fit, provided that the Judicial Commissioner shall be at liberty at any stage to withdraw for disposal before himself any proceeding in execution pending in any Court subordinate to the Judicial Commissioner's Court in respect of an order transmitted to such Court for execution.

16. Liquidator to report if he contests claims of depositors.—If upon receipt of claims by depositors of a company, the Liquidator desires to contest the claim shown in the books of the company as due to the depositors on the ground that there is reason for doubting any particular entry in the books he shall make a report to the Court stating his reasons for doubting such entry and if upon such report the Court is satisfied that there is a prima facie reason for doubting any particular entry, the Court may cause a notice to be given to the depositor concerned to come in and prove his claim.

17. Rules under the Indian Companies Act.—These rules shall be in addition to and not in derogation of rules contained in Chapter I, High Court Rules and orders, Volume II. In case of inconsistency these rules shall prevail.

18. Presentation and hearing of complaints.—(i) Proceedings under section 45 J of the Act shall ordinarily commence with a complaint being presented by the Liquidator. On presentation of the complaint the Judicial Commissioner may issue a summons or a bailable or non-bailable warrant against the accused and shall fix a date for the trial or may dismiss the complaint as he may in his discretion think fit.

(ii) In case of a trial under Section 45 J(4) the procedure provided in the Criminal Procedure Code (Act V of 1898) for the trial of warrant cases, shall so far as it is not inconsistent, with the provisions of the Act, be applicable.

19. Processes.—All processes shall issue from the office of the Judicial Commissioner's Court-

20. Application for Inspection of Records.—The Reserve Bank of India may apply to the Judicial Commissioner for permission to inspect the records of the Banking Company, and such permission may be granted by the Judicial Commissioner in his discretion.

By order,
H. L. SONI,
Registrar.

Panchayat Department

NOTIFICATION

Simla-4, the 23rd September, 1955

No. CS-92-49/53.—In exercise of the powers conferred upon him under section 135 of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayat Raj Act, 1953, the Lieutenant Governor, Himachal Pradesh, is hereby pleased to make the following amendments in the rules made under the Himachal Pradesh Panchayat Raj Act, 1953 and published in the Gazette of India part III Section (3) on the 12th September, 1953 :—

RULE 23, para, 2 sub-section (i).—Words "from such date to therefrom" may be deleted. Rules from 23 onward may be redrafted as below :

RULE 24. Division of the Gram Sabha area into Constituencies.—Every Returning Officer shall divide the whole of the Gram Sabha area in so many constituencies as there may be general seats.

RULE 25. Demarcation of the Polling Station area.—At least 24 hours before day and time fixed for the holding of the meeting of the Gram Sabha for the purpose of election the Returning Officer shall demarcate the area measuring at least 100×100 yards at the place fixed for holding the meeting of the Gram Sabha under rule 23 and shall declare it as Polling Station area.

RULE 26. Conduct of Votes at the Polling Station.—No member of the Gram Sabha or any prospective candidate for a seat or their agents shall speak or address any other member in the polling station except under rule 26 (a) (b) and during the period of half an hour allowed for consideration and in that case too nobody shall shout slogans, deliver any speech or enter in any loud discussion at the polling station area. Any member, a candidate or a person acting on behalf of any candidate can, if he so feels, make an objection to the Presiding Officer on any of the following grounds, namely:-

- (a) An objection regarding the presence of any person who is not a member of the Gram Sabha and as such has no right to vote.
- (b) That any person claiming to be a voter of the Gram Sabha is not entered as such in the register of members.

Any person infringing this rule shall be capable of being turned out of the polling station by the Returning Officer and shall as well be liable to such penalty as may be provided.

RULE 27. Members to attend Polling Station—

(a) Every voter desirous of recording the vote shall attend for the purpose, at the Polling Station for the constituency for which he is entered in the register of members, on such date, and at such time as may be appointed by the Returning Officer in this behalf.

(b) It shall be the duty of the Presiding Officer and other assistants that the votes are cast with free and independent will and that only such persons are admitted to the polling station who have got the right to vote under the rules and that the persons against whom objections have been heard and upheld, leave the polling station immediately. It shall also be their duty to see that these rules and such directions as may be given by the Returning Officers thereunder are strictly observed in all respects.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT

RULE 28. Holding of the Meeting.—The Returning Officer shall then at the hour fixed for the meeting declare the meeting of the Gram Sabha as open, he shall first ensure that the members present are entered in the register of members as valid members and that the quorum as provided in section 11 for the holding of the meeting is completed. In case the quorum is not complete he shall be entitled to postpone the time of holding election at the most by an hour.

(ii) In case the quorum is not complete even after waiting for an hour he shall be authorised to adjourn the meeting for another date in that very meeting for which separate notice by beat of drums shall be given in the Gram Sabha area and that no quorum shall be necessary to hold the adjourned meeting as provided in section 11.

RULE 29. Proposals for President and Vice President.—(i) After seeing that the meeting is in order the Returning Officer shall invite proposals for the office of President and Vice President from the members present in the meeting.

(ii) It will be valid to propose the name of even absentee member provided a written acceptance from him is also produced along-with.

(iii) No proposal shall be entertained unless it is seconded.

RULE 30. Scrutiny of Proposals.—After all the proposals have been received they shall be scrutinised by the Returning Officer and shall reject the proposals in favour of those who are disqualified under Section 12. He should record brief reasons for the rejection.

RULE 31. Withdrawal.—After all the proposals have been scrutinized the Returning Officer shall announce the names of the valid candidates and shall give them a time of one hour for withdrawing their names either orally or in writing as they choose but he shall make a record of all the withdrawals in writing. He should at this time advise the Gram Sabha and the candidates to arrive at a unanimous solution and in case they do arrive at any such solution the remaining candidates shall withdraw.

RULE 32. Record of unanimous election.—In case of unanimous decisions of the Gram Sabha in this behalf the Returning Officer shall record its decision and declare the candidates as elected there and then.

RULE 33. Preparation of list of Candidates.—Where the Gram Sabhas have not been able to arrive at a unanimous decision, the Returning Officer shall prepare a list of all candidates and exhibit it either upon a Black-board or on such thing as may be conspicuously visible to the members of the Gram Sabha sitting in the meeting.

RULE 34. Election of President and Vice President.—After the procedure laid in the above said rules has been adopted, the Returning Officer shall call out the names of each candidate turn by turn and get votes by show of hands in favour of each. He shall as well announce that no person shall be allowed to exercise more than one vote each in the case of candidates of president and vice president respectively.

RULE 35.—The Polling Officer shall see that nobody misuses and over exercises his vote.

RULE 36.—Votes cast in favour of each candidate will be counted, announced and recorded.

RULE 37.—He shall then declare those candidates selected who secure highest number of votes and in case where the number of votes secured by two or more candidates is equal and it is necessary to take a decision as to who out of them should be declared elected then such determination shall be made by lot to be drawn in the presence of the Returning Officer and such of the candidates as may be present and in such manner as may be determined by the Returning Officer.

RULE 38. Election of Members for the Reserved Seats.—After the election of the President and Vice President the Returning Officer shall hold the elections for the reserved seats for scheduled castes and women and shall follow the procedure as laid down for the election of President and Vice President so far as it may be applicable.

RULE 39.—After the election to the president and vice president and the members to the reserved seats has taken place the Returning Officer shall request the members present to break-up into constituencies by informing them the area of each constituency with villages included in each. He shall appoint one polling officer for supervising the election of each constituency sitting in separate group in the same polling station area.

RULE 40.—Each constituency shall be single member constituency.

RULE 41.—Election to each constituency shall then be held in such manner as has been prescribed above for the election of the president and vice president.

RULE 42.—The Returning Officer shall be responsible for the good conduct of the elections throughout and shall supervise elections for each constituency.

RULE 43. Record of Election.—After the elections are complete all records shall be collected, signed by him and sealed in the presence of candidates or their agents. He shall of course retain a copy of the record with him. Sealed records will be forwarded to the District Magistrate.

RULE 44. Publication of Results of Election.—
(a) The Returning Officer shall cause the name of the elected candidate to be posted at village patwarkhana or at the village Panchayat Office or at such other place as may be appointed in that behalf by him and shall report such name or names immediately to the Collector.

(b) The Collector shall publish the result of election by causing it to be posted up at his office, at the village patwarkhana and at the Gram Panchayat office.

(c) The Publication by the Collector shall be the final publication.

RULE 45. Custody of Election Results.—After the compilation of the election result voting record received from each polling station shall be retained for such period the Collector may direct.

RULE 46. Production and inspection of election paper.—While in the custody of Returning Officer the packets of voting record shall not be inspected or produced except under the orders of the Collector.

Rules 47 to 57 will stand deleted.

FATEH SINGH,
Secretary.
